We the Class of 1998

We wish to dedicate the 1998 Optimist to our hardworking, caring, and inspiring principal Ms. Mary G. Bennett. She has dedicated her life's energy to improve the quality of education at Malcolm X Shabazz. We acknowledge her never-ending drive to enrich our lives both in school, as well as, in society. As we prepare to enter the "real world" and face new and bolder challenges we will always look back with fondness on our experiences with a smile, because we had you Ms. Bennett!

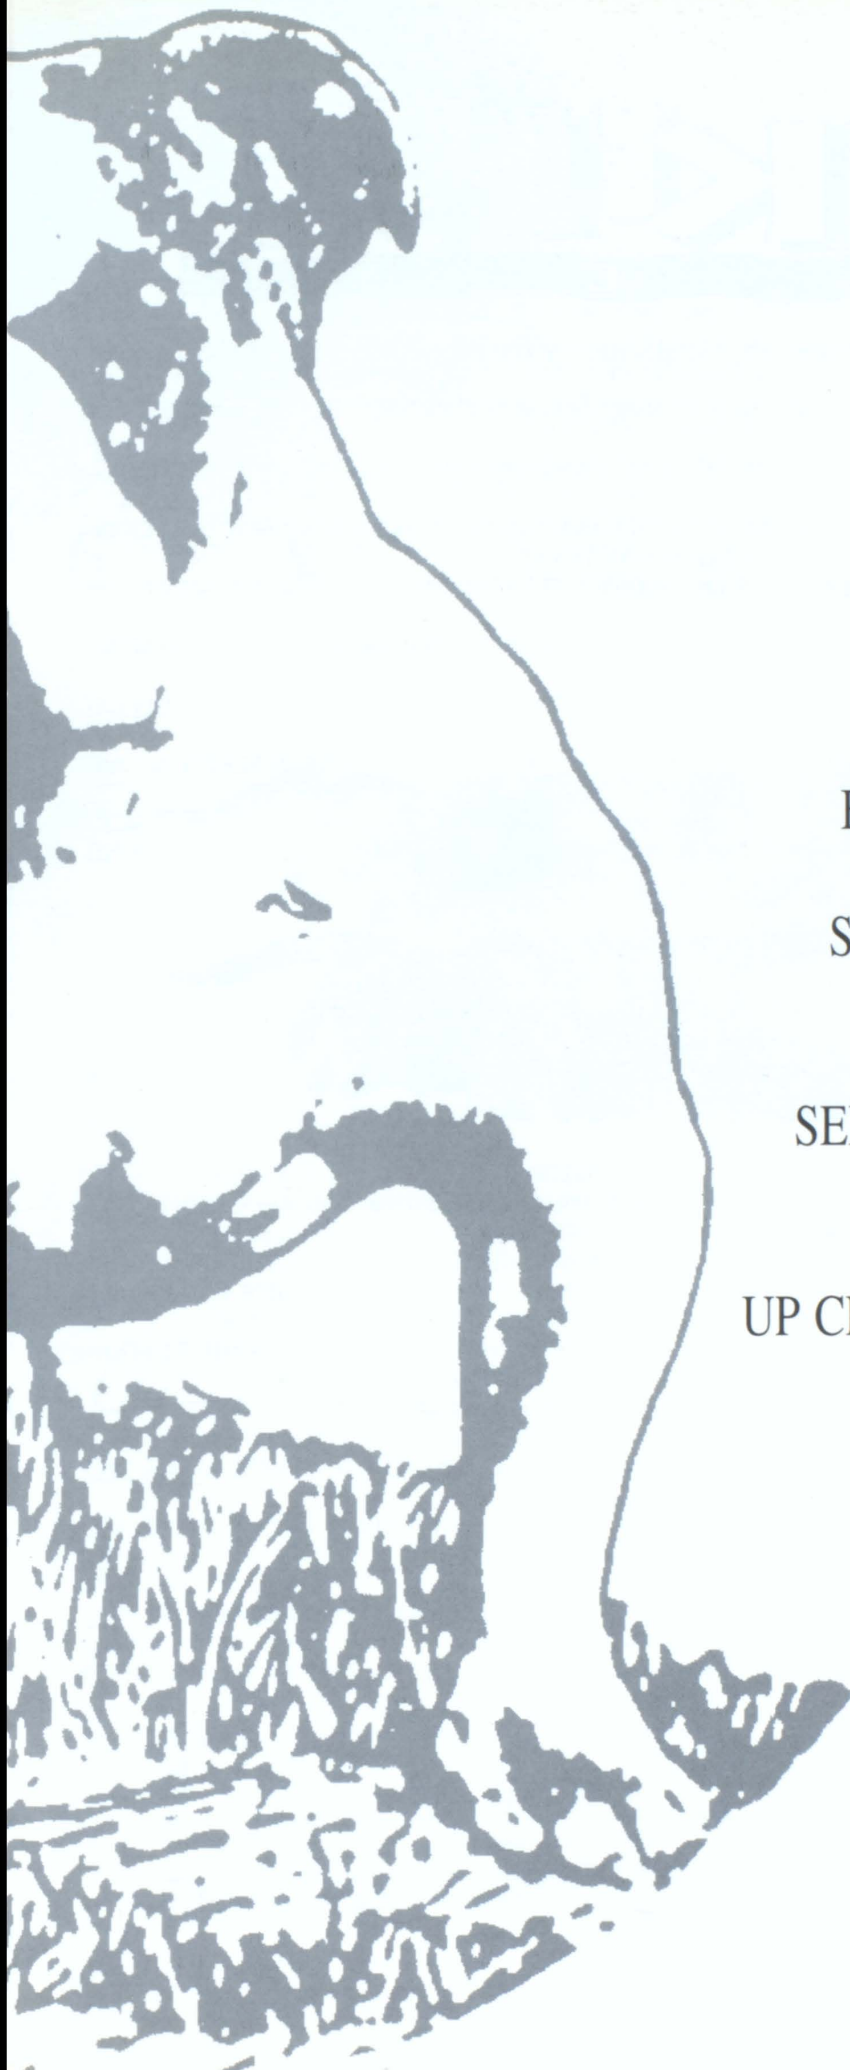

God bless and thanks,
The Class of 1998

Just Chill'n

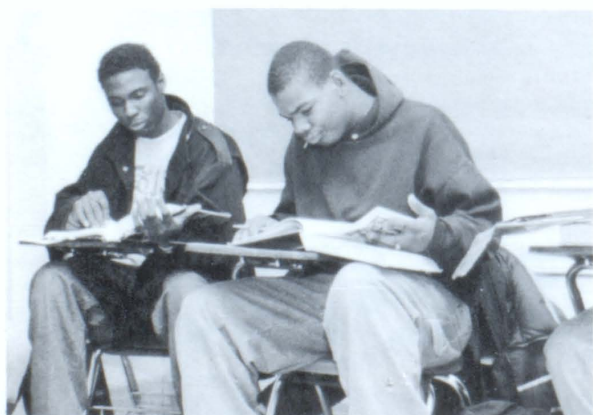

These glasses sure make me look smart.

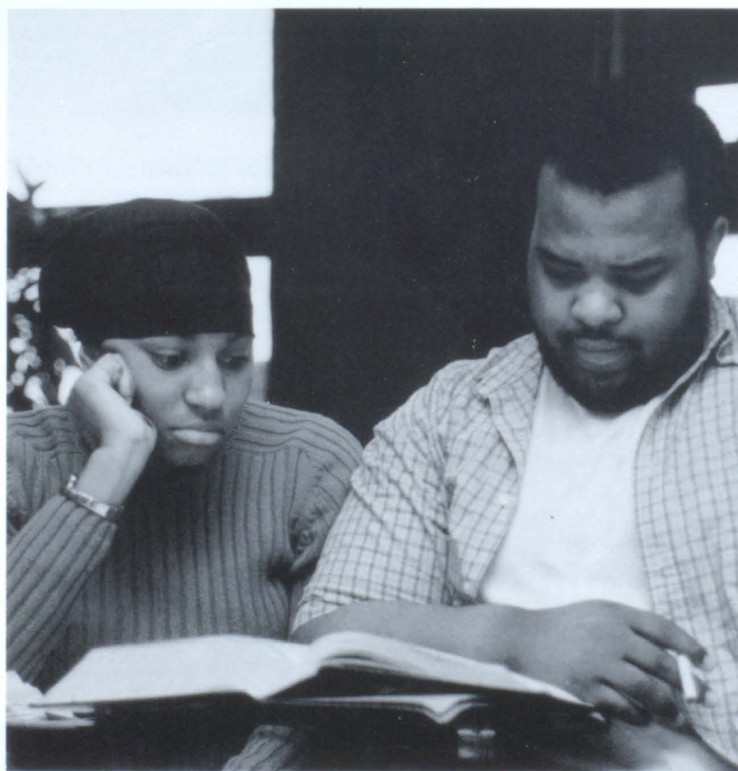

This thumb is tasty.

So this is a history book.

Move over Spike Lee.

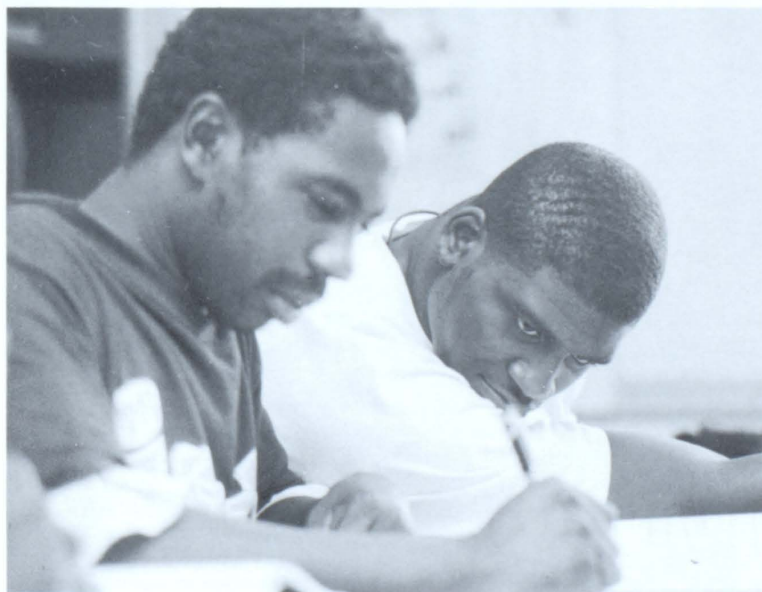

Try again Andre, "see Spot run".

What's that smell?

Come out, come out, wherever you are.

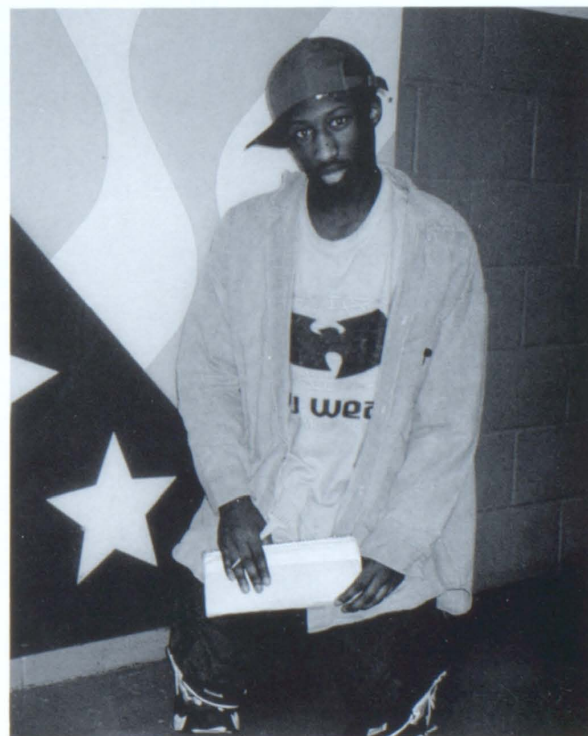

It's hard to see his answers.

They call this lunch?

Why didn't I make the basketball team?

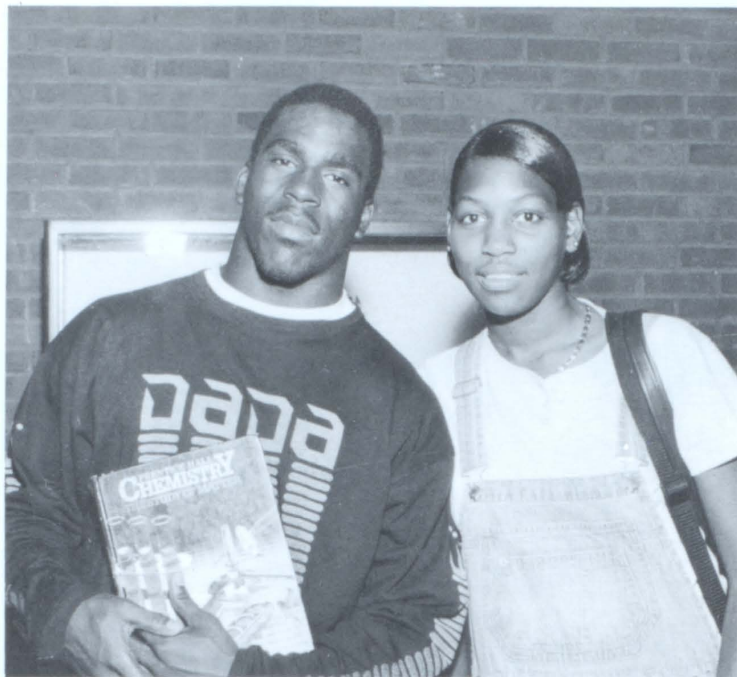

Where is that lunch card?

Just watch my hands.

How is this pose?

A.J. with a chemistry book . . . April Fool!

This is how you keep a man.

Day Dreaming

Can I get another lunch?

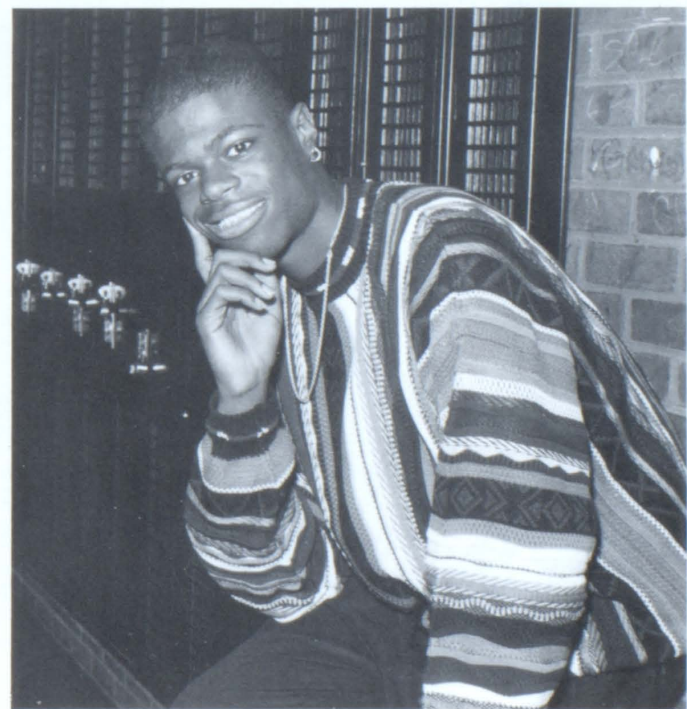

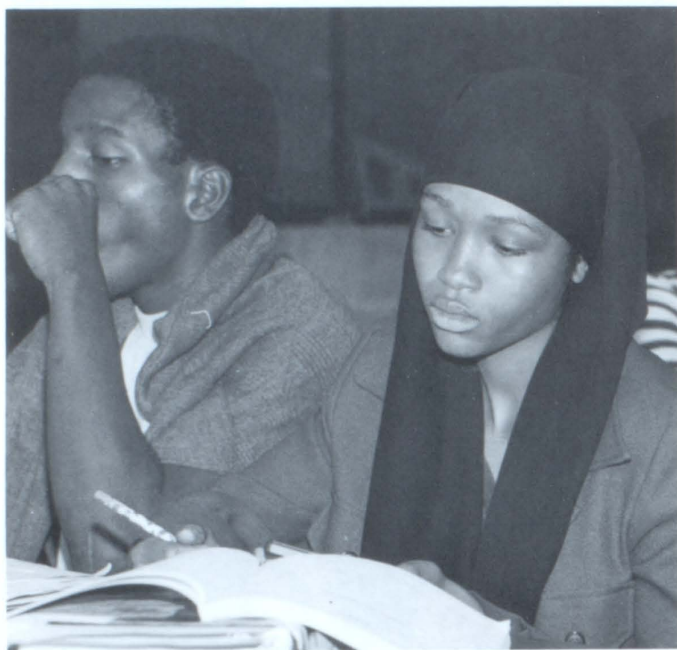

Is this on camera?

Three the hard way.

Don't I have a wonderful smile?

It's study time, not lunch time.

What's the answer man?

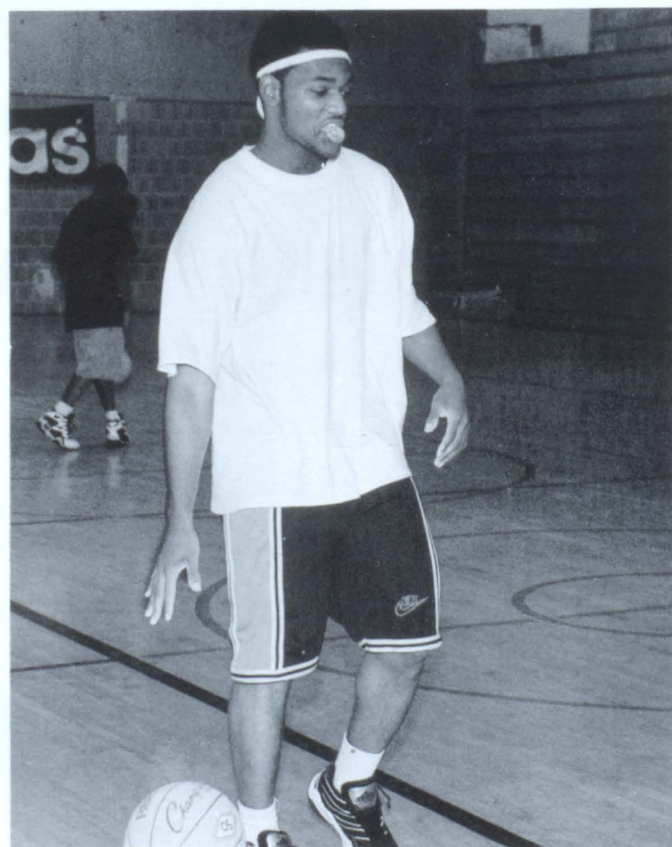

Please pass me. Please!

Move over Whitney!

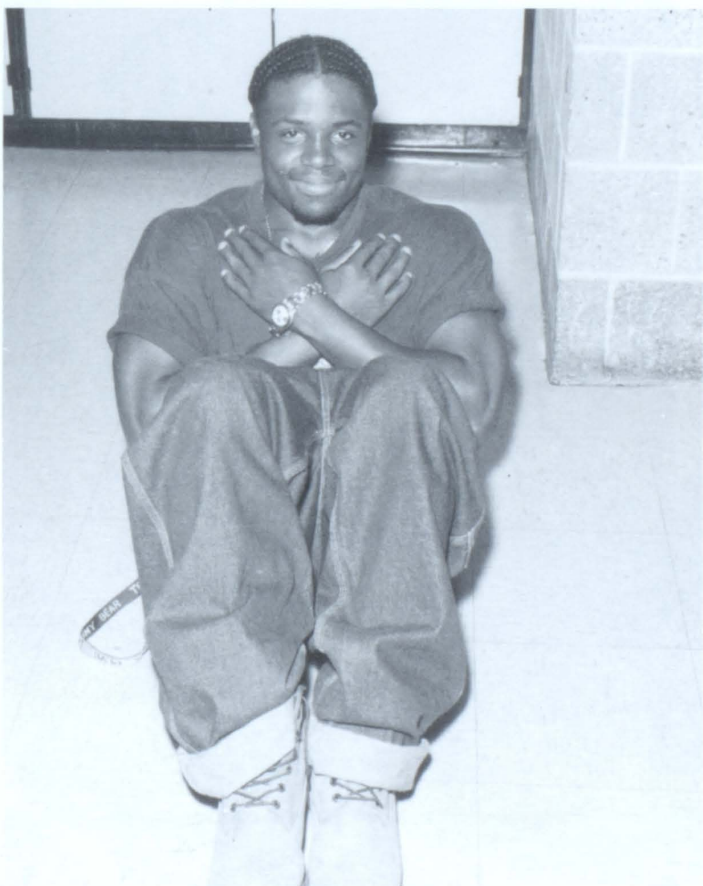

Put in the basket, not on the floor.

This is the way we wash our hands.

Move over Richard Simmons.

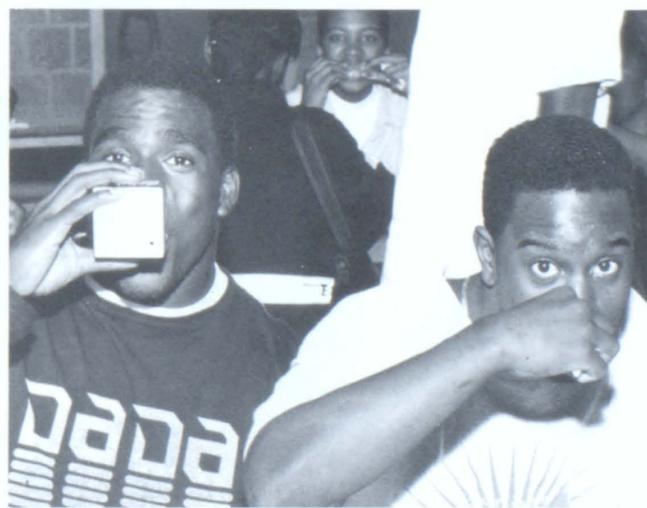

Someone call the Fire Department.

Oh, this is a candid?

Breakfast, the way to go.

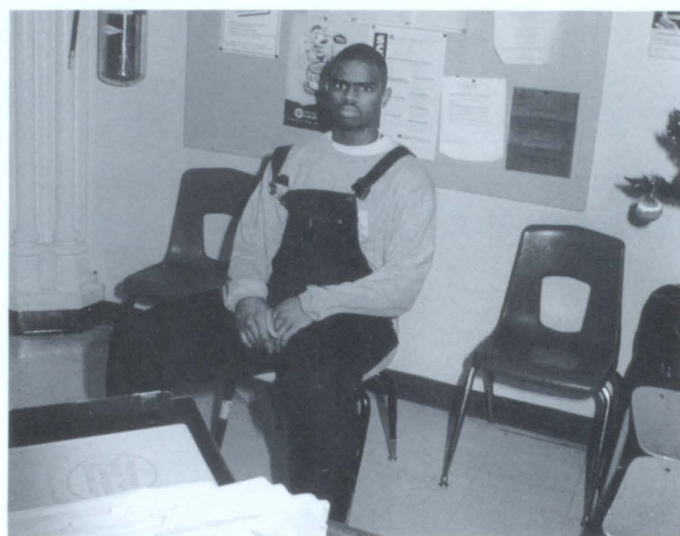

I was going to pay, honest!

Got to air those shoes out.

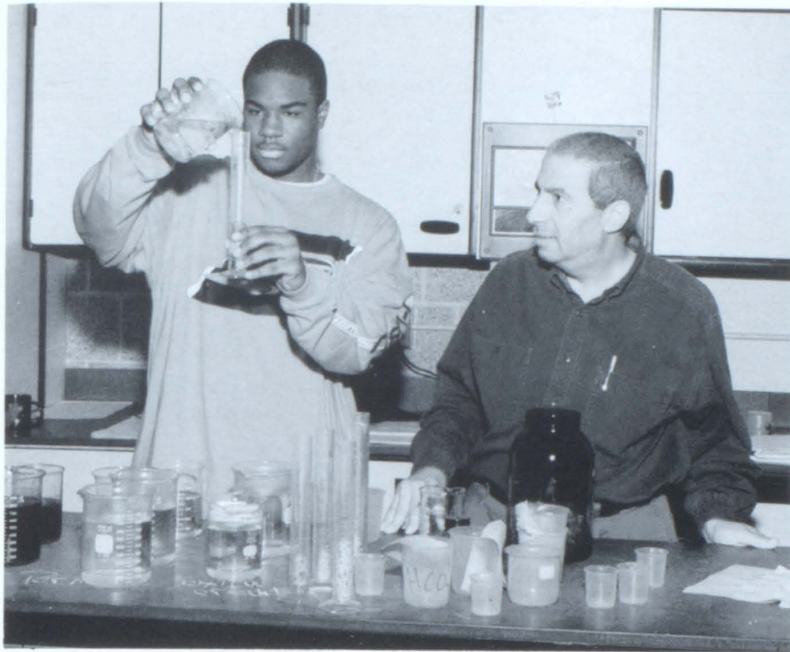

America's most wanted!

Why am I always sitting?

Brother, this is a hard choice.

This Kool Aid is coming along.

Don't eat this food, please!

Look, it's Superman!

Why is he sweating me?

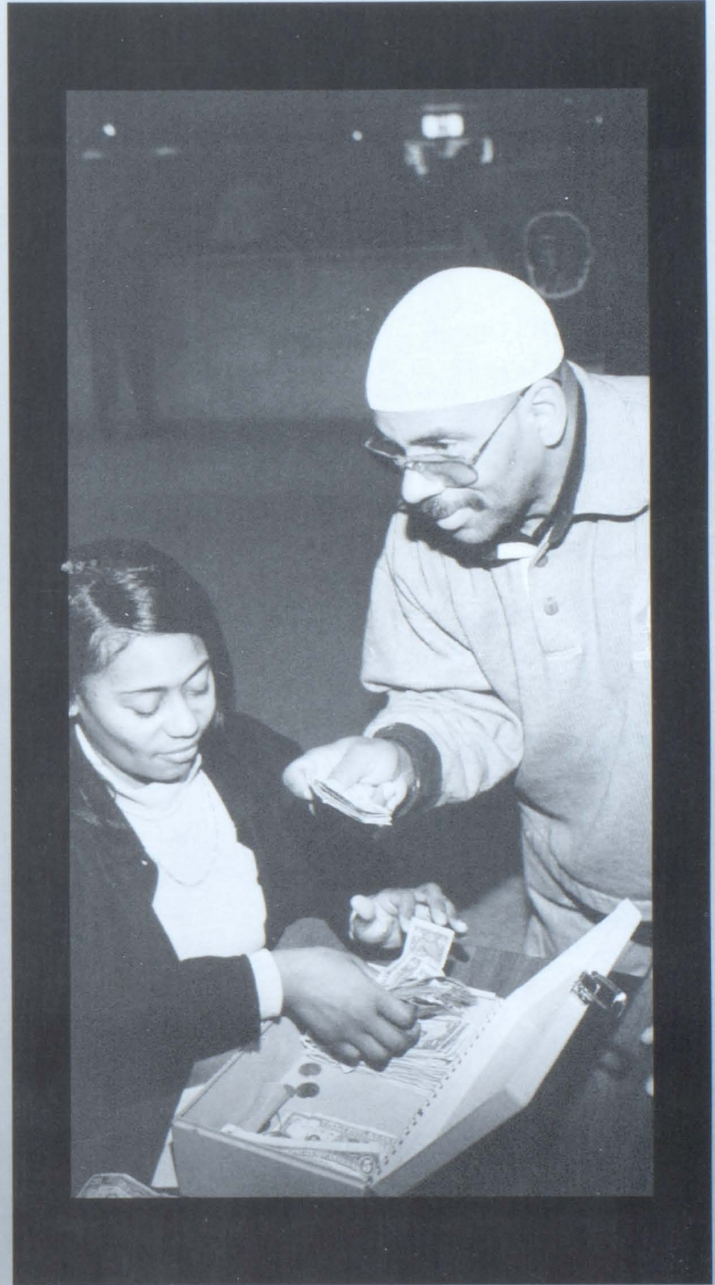

Everything is groovy!

Principal's Message

Class of 1998,

Congratulations on reaching this milestone in your life. High School graduation is an important accomplishment on the way to achieving your goals.

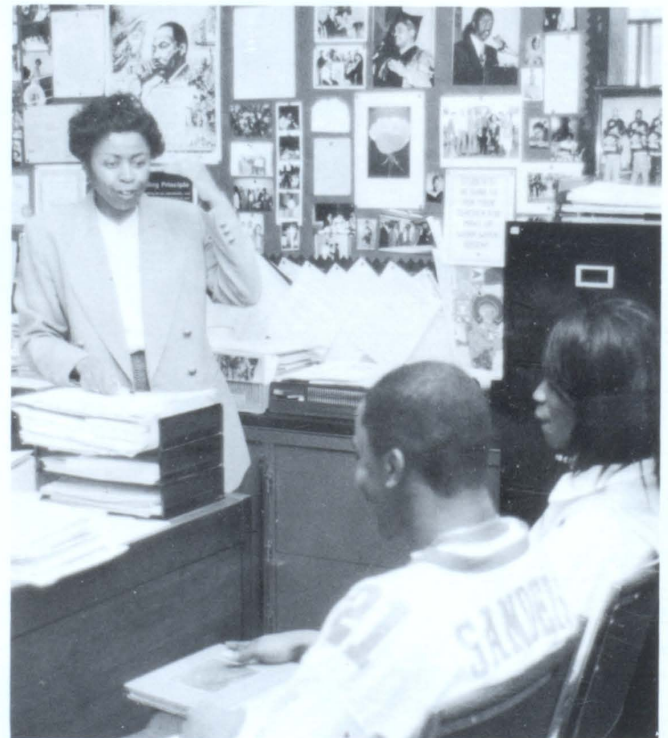

We, the Malcolm X Shabazz High School faculty, are very proud of you. Our years together were challenging, thought-provoking and fun. I hope that you learned some lessons about the value of working hard, self-control and determination.

I am expecting great things from everyone of you. Whether you are planning to go to college, enter the world of work, go to a business or trade school or go to the military, you owe it to yourself to accomplish your goals. There may be difficult times, but persevere. Remember, you are a bulldog. Bulldogs never give up.

Best wishes,

We, the graduating class of 1998, beckon you to reminisce with us as we reflect upon our senior year at Malcolm X Shabazz High School. The path to graduation has been a winding one, filled with accomplishments as well as setbacks, joy as well as sorrow, hope as well as despair. Nevertheless, we have finally triumphed, and wish to show our gratitude to all who encouraged us along the way. We present, with great pride, the legacy of the CLASS OF 1998
